Respondents nos. 4 to 6 are also parties to the said settlement and as such, their grievance as against the purchase of the plot by the petitioners does not survive. The petitioners have already constructed residential house on the remaining part of the plot no. 1 and 2 and they have given 16 ft.. land for constructing school room. Their residential house and the school are in existence since 1992. No dispute survives between the village people and the petitioner.
